

Citizenship - Student Questionnaire

Year Group:

Please tick the correct box for each area according to how much knowledge you have in each of the areas listed below.

Knowledge	Know a lot	Know quite a lot	Know a little	Know nothing
Rights and responsibilities
Differences between groups of people
Government, elections and voting
The media (freedom of press and censorship)
The media (how it seeks to influence behaviour through campaigning and advertising)
Local and national issues and events
How the economy works
Environmental issues
Skills
Make a contribution to group and class discussions
Express an opinion in writing
Make use of information from different sources (eg: libraries, the Internet, etc)
Think and talk about current affairs
Use my imagination to think about other people's experiences
Activities
Help in the local community
Take part in/run a club or society
Take part in school elections/in a school council
Make links with other places in this country or overseas

Citizenship - Student Questionnaire

Year Group:

To help you to become better active citizens, which of the following would you like to see in your school?

	Would like to see	No sure / no opinion	Do not want to see
Teaching Methods
Presentations (made by students, in groups or individually)
Discussions and debates
Videos and films
Computer-based activities, including use of the Internet
Visits from people from your local community
Students going out into the local community
Drama, acting and role play
Textbooks
Worksheets
Teaching packs (for several lessons or a term)
Newspapers and magazines
Spending time helping people in the community
Clubs and societies run for and by students
Watching TV or reading newspapers
School elections or a school council
Making links with other places in this country or overseas
Assessment methods
Written tests
An end-of-year examination
Project work or coursework
Individual student oral presentations
Group student oral presentations
Evidence from different lessons

Which area would you most like to learn about?